

LIVE NEWS OF TWO PITTSTONS

Events of the Upper End of Luzerne County Briefly Narrated.

Y. M. C. A. ANNIVERSARY OBSERVED

Thirteenth Birthday of the Pittston Association Commemorated by Suitable References in All the Pittston Churches—Kearney and Hendricks Each Sentenced to One Year at Hard Labor and a Fine of $300 and Costs—Other Newsy Gleanings from the Twin Villages.

(THE SCRANTON TRIBUNE'S Pittston department is in charge of J. M. Fahy, to whom news items and complaints may be referred.)

The thirteenth anniversary of the Young Men's Christian association, of this place, was appropriately observed by special services in nearly all the churches of this place in commemoration of the event last evening. The president's report was read and an address on the work of the association delivered. The speakers who spoke at the various churches are as follows: Broad Street Presbyterian church, address by George Mahy, general secretary of the Scranton Young Men's Christian association; reports, F. W. Bush, J. C. Manning, Broad Street Methodist Episcopal church, address by J. W. Thomas, reports, James A. Lewis, Carl Conditman, Water Street Baptist church, address by F. W. Pearsall, general secretary of the Railroad Young Men's Christian association, of Scranton. Union meeting of the Congregational and Baptist churches, of Luzerne street, address by James Jones; reports, Thelma Evans, The Young Men's Christian Association Male chorus sang several selections at the Methodist church.

At the West Pittston churches the addresses were as follows: Methodist church, address by Professor J. M. Conklin, Wilkes-Barre, reports, Theodore M. Johnson, M. D.; Presbyterian church, address by Attorney Thomas H. Atterton, of Wilkes-Barre; reports, C. F. Watrous, jr. Baptist church, address by Attorney John V. Brownell, Wilkes-Barre; reports, I. L. Betton, Congregational church, address by Rev. P. J. Kain; reports, A. N. Wylie, Trinity Episcopal, address by the rector, Rev. E. H. Eckel.

KEARNEY AND HENDRICKS.

They Confessed Their Crime and Received Their Punishment.

In court at Wilkes-Barre Saturday Michael Kearney and James Hendricks, formerly of Avoca, who pleaded guilty to larceny were each sentenced to pay a fine of $300, costs and undergo an imprisonment of one year at hard labor in the county jail.

The prisoners, it will be remembered, stole considerable produce from parties in and about Wilkes-Barre. While disposing of it they were arrested. The cheapness with which they were offering the goods for sale caused a suspicion that finally resulted in their capture.

THINGS OBSERVED AND NOTED.

Again rumor has it that Pittston is to have a new place of amusement. The appearance here last week of Daniel L. Hart, who is managing Waite's Music Hall at Wilkes-Barre, has given rise to the rumor. Mr. Hart, in response to a query, stated: "Yes, Mr. Waite is fully imbued with the belief that Pittston is an excellent town and one that would prove extremely profitable if rightly managed. To do this it is our intention to erect, if we can't secure Music Hall, a building for such purposes that will be credit to Pittston, architecturally and otherwise."

Many wondered what the prevailing rumors of the Gazette would do in the event of a local Republican ticket being nominated. The delusion they cherished that Mr. Hart would be compelled to "fall in line" has been shattered by the chitney and dash with which he defines his position on local matters. In language plain and decisive he hurled defiance at what he is pleased to term "the schemers," by asserting that their actions at Tuesday's convention has convinced the people "more strongly than ever of the impossibility of bringing about the desired cleansing of the borough government through either of the old parties, and, accordingly, the reform movement has gained instead of lost strength."

During the present week theater-going patrons will be favored with a week of repertoire acting by Thomas E. Shea at popular prices. Mr. Shea is well known to Pittstonians, having played here at divers times. He is an actor of rare talents and possesses a happy faculty of knowing how to display them in a manner that has gained for him a host of admirers.

Seventy-three applicants from this borough petitioned the court for license. Should they be granted, which is quite probable, with the many "speak-easies" that are known to soil the vile stuff, the condition of affairs as they are known to exist cannot but be viewed with alarm. The borough proper has a population of perhaps 6,000 persons. Estimating an average of five persons for every household there would be 1,200 heads of families. By a little computation we find that in the event of all the applications being granted there would be one licensed drinking place for every fourteen families. Supposing this ratio of gain continues without an increase of population the question naturally arises what are we coming to as a people? By a research of the records we find the applicants number more than the combined number of the boroughs of Avoca, Ashley, Luzerne, Kingston, Minor's Mills and White Haven.

Is Holland, Mich., C. J. Dosebury publishes the News, and its columns strongly recommends Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil for coughs, colds, sore throat, catarrh and asthma.

Routine Occurrences of Current Interest Treated in Brief.

Thomas E. Shea, supported by a strong company, will open a week's engagement at Music Hall this evening with the well-known drama, "Escaped from Sing Sing."

F. W. Pearsall, general secretary of the Scranton Railroad Young Men's Christian Association, addressed the members in the Young Men's Christian Association rooms, corner of Main and Broad streets, yesterday afternoon. The Republican delegates election will be held on the West Side to-mor-

CHEERFUL CARBONDALE NEWS.
Good Natured Budget of Personal Jottings and Other Notes.
Special to the Scranton Tribune.
CARBONDALE, Pa., Jan. 28.—This evening in the Baptist Tabernacle the pastor, Rev. O. E. Jepson, preached the last in his series of sermons on "The Conversions in the New Testament," taking for his subject "Conversion on the Crosses." At the close of the sermon administration of baptism was observed. The usual large audience was in attendance and with much interest listened to the words of the speaker.

A very instructive lecture on temperance was delivered this afternoon, commencing at 3:30 o'clock, in the Presbyterian church. The speaker was Miss Ella C. Rodgers, one of the most enthusiastic temperance workers in the country. She was greeted by a large and attentive audience.

Beginning Monday the Delaware and Hudson Gravity railroad will work half time. This road has been working three quarter time during the past few weeks.

Mrs. D. Scurry, Mrs. Irving Davis and Mrs. J. E. Wate were in Pittston on Saturday attending a dinner party given at the home of Rev. O. H. McAnulty, a former pastor of Carbondale.

DEATH OF DAVID DAVIS, SR.

An Honored Career is Brought to a Close by Pneumonia.
Special to the Scranton Tribune.
CARBONDALE, Pa., Jan. 28.—On Saturday morning at 3 o'clock death came to relieve the suffering of David Davis, sr., a resident of South Church street and who, during the past two weeks, had been an intense sufferer with typhoid pneumonia.

Mr. Davis was born in Wales sixty-seven years ago. He is survived by his wife and nine children, Mrs. David James John Davis, Mrs. David Evans, Mrs. Gray Jones, George D. Davis and Daniel Davis, of this city; William Davis, a merchant at Pontardawe, Wales, and Rev. T. D. Davis, a Congregational minister of Sheldon, Vt. The time for the funeral has not yet been announced.

CRITICISING A YOUNG LADY.

"She would be a pretty girl for but one thing."
"What's that?" asked Charley.
George—Her face is always covered with purple and red blotches.
Charley—Oh, that's easily enough disposed of. Used to be the same way myself, but I caught on to the trouble one day, and got rid of it in no time.
George—What was it?
Charley—Simply blood eruptions. Took a sort of course of Dr. P. P. I tell you, it's the best blood corrector. The governor had rheumatism so bad that you could hear him rattle clear across the country every time he moved. He tried it, and you know what an athletic old gent he is now. If somebody would give Miss Daisy a pointer, she would thank them after wards. All the drug stores sell it.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."
H. A. ANGER, M. D.,

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."

Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves.
